

"Promoting innovation through the development of beam high technology.

Tuesday, 23 February 2010

Strategy

and Policy Institute of Science and Technology (NISTPASS), Ministry of Science and Technology Cooperation with the Center for Technology Transfer in Asia and the Pacific (APCTT) held a Seminar on "Promoting innovation through the development of beam high technology.

Workshop took place in two days 9 and November 10, 2009. TS. Mai Ha, Director of Institute of Strategy and Policy of Science and Technology conference opening remarks and welcomed the international delegates from India, Hungary, China, Thailand, Korea and other experts of the Ministry of Science and Technology, Ministry of Industry and Commerce ...

The

objective of the workshop to discuss issues related to policy and practical experience in developing high-tech cluster for innovation activities and facilitating cooperation among stakeholders.

ESCAP representative TS. K. Ramanathan, director of APCTT-ESCAP and other experts have this research experience selecting and developing high-tech clusters in the innovation and development in the country. Experts Workshop participants will exchange experiences, discuss and recommend to the Ministry of Science and Technology in policy development, promotion and development of selected high-beam congnghe in Viet Nam.